2.4.1 Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc

2.4.2 Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any person other than mentioned in 2.2.1 above, shall be only with the prior written approval of the Executive Directors or the CFO or the Compliance Officer of the Company recording the purpose and circumstances of such disclosure.

2.5 All Unpublished Price Sensitive Information received by any Employee should be reported to the head of his/her department.

2.6 The Board of Directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

2.7 The Board of Directors required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

3. Confidentiality Agreement:

All Internal Employees (on behalf of self & their Immediate Relatives) would have to sign a confidentiality agreement undertaking an obligation to protect the confidentiality of information obtained by him/her while working with the Company. The obligation would continue for six months after the said Employee leaves the Company.

The board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 3 of these regulations, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

4.0 Prevention of misused “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

4.1 No Insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

(i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Every company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

(ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of the regulation.

(iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

(iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

(v) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

- (a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and
- (b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(vi) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5.

In the case of connected persons, the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

The Board may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.

4.2 Trading Plans

4.2.1 An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

4.2.2 Such Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (iii) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - i. either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - ii. nature of the trade;
 - iii. either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - iv. price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price
- (iv) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

4.2.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violations of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary in Annexure 4 to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

4.2.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation

Provided further that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (v) of sub-regulation 2, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

4.2.5 The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

4.3 Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations of the company and shall be subjected to trading restrictions as enumerated below:

4.4 Trading Window:

4.4.1 The Company shall specify a trading period, to be called "Trading Window", for trading in the Company's securities. The trading window shall be closed during the time the information referred to in para 4.4.2 is unpublished.

4.4.2 When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons and their Immediate relatives shall not trade in the company's securities in such period.

The trading window shall remain closed from the time the notice of the proposed meeting of the Company is released and/ or intimation of the impending meeting is given to the Stock Exchange(s) where the new Company's shares are listed, till the conclusion of the said meeting and on expiry of 48 hours such information has been made including the followings.

- a) From 1st April up to forty-eight hours after communication of the annual / fourth quarter financial results (and dividend, if any) to the Stock Exchanges.
- b) From 1st July up to forty-eight hours after the announcement of the first quarter financial results to the Stock Exchanges.
- c) From 1st October up to forty-eight hours after the announcement of the second quarter and half yearly financial results to the Stock Exchanges.

d) From 1st January up to forty-eight hours after the announcement of the third quarter financial results to the Stock Exchanges.

4.4.3 Designated Persons of the company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the company's securities during the period when trading window is closed, as referred to in para 4.4.2 or during any other period as may be specified by the company from time to time.

5. The re-opening of the trading window (other than the cases covered in the para 4.4.2) shall be determined by the Compliance Officer appointed by the Board of Directors for the purpose of this Code taking into account various factors including the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in question becoming Generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

All communication regarding the closing and opening of the Trading Window will be sent by e-mail to the Designated Persons and will also be notified to the Stock Exchanges and uploaded on the Company's website. However, irrespective of whether such communication is received, the Insiders governed by this code should mandatorily verify whether the trading window is open before undertaking any transactions in respect of the Company's securities. Non receipt of communication regarding closure of trading window will not justify a transaction done during the period when the trading window was closed.

6.0 Pre-clearance of trades: An application in Annexure 1 shall be made by Designated Persons to obtain prior clearance from the Compliance Officer in respect of purchase / sale of securities of the Company, where the number of shares acquired or disposed of whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees. Such purchase / sale of securities by the Compliance Officer shall require prior clearance from the Executive Chairman. The Compliance Officer/ Executive Chairman, as the case may be, shall give pre-clearance approval in Annexure-6. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

6.1. Purchase /sale transactions, for which prior clearance has been obtained, shall be executed within seven days of such clearance. If the order is not executed within one week after approval is given, the Designated Persons must pre-clear the transaction again.

6.2 Any person required to obtain pre-clearance shall file the details of the transactions in the format prescribed under Annexure 2 with the Compliance Officer within 30 days of the exercise of the trade. Even in cases where the transaction has not been undertaken, the same should be reported in the above format.

7. An application may be made in the prescribed form to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the director/Designated Persons intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository made and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company, in this behalf.

8. Designated Persons shall hold the securities of the Company for a minimum period of 6 months within which the Designated Persons who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade. The restriction of six months on sale/purchase of shares in case of more than one purchase/sale would apply from the date of the last purchase/sale and not the first purchase/sale.

If contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

9. Reporting Requirements for transactions in securities (Disclosures)

Designated Persons shall make the following disclosures of shares and other securities held in the Company by them and their Immediate relatives to the Compliance Officer:

i) Initial Disclosure: Every person on appointment as a KMP or a director or a Designated Person of a Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group or a Designated Person shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within 7 days of such appointment or becoming a promoter in Form B.

ii) Continual Disclosure: Every Promoter, member of the promoter group, designated person and director shall disclose to the Company, the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified by the Regulations;
